TRUMP'S ADVISER STEPHEN MILLER PARTNERS WITH HB - BOLD BID TO OVERTURN CALIFORNIA 'SANCTUARY STATE' LAW

By Ross O'Keefe

A law firm founded by top Trump administration advisor Stephen Miller has filed an appeal contesting California's "sanctuary state" status on behalf of Huntington Beach and top officials like gubernatorial hopeful Chad Bianco.

The firm, America First Legal, argues that the dismissal of a lawsuit seeking to strike down a 2017 law banning local law enforcement from working with federal immigration officials should be overturned.

The AFL says the district court judge who last year denied the firm's initial challenge, which had been backed by the Justice Department and former Attorney General Pam Bondi, "incorrectly applied the 'South Lake Tahoe' doctrine" — a rule that prevents local governments from challenging the constitutionality of state laws in federal court.

The first Trump administration filed a similar challenge, which was struck down in 2018.

District Court Judge John Mendez, a George W. Bush appointee, denied that challenge because he believed the law did not impede federal immigration officials. "Refusing to help is not the same as impeding," he said in his ruling.

The AFL, founded by Miller in 2021, told The Post that the dismissal of the challenge puts law enforcement officers in a bind.

"California has put its own law enforcement officers in an impossible position: violate state law, or violate federal law," AFL Senior Counsel James Rogers said.

"A state government targeted its own officers for following federal law, and then a district court said those officers had no right to even walk into a courthouse to challenge it. That is an outrage," he added.

California is home to 10.9 million migrants, and in 2023 had about 2.25 million undocumented migrants, according to Pew Research Center data. Immigration and Customs Enforcement has been active in the state since Trump's second term began, with local politicians hostile to their presence.

officials.

The firm cites the "flawed" South Lake Tahoe doctrine — which reinforces that cities are agents of the state — saying it strips cities like Huntington Beach of their rights to protect their community.

The AFL also cited the dilemma the "sanctuary state" law places on officers "for disobeying California law or [exhibiting] potential federal criminal liability for 'shielding and harboring' aliens in violation of federal statutes."

The firm believes the case is "about the rule of law."

"It's about whether law enforcement officers are allowed to protect their communities and whether radical judges can use flimsy, judge-made law to protect blue states from the consequences of their own illegal behavior," AFL Counsel Ryan Giannetti told The Post

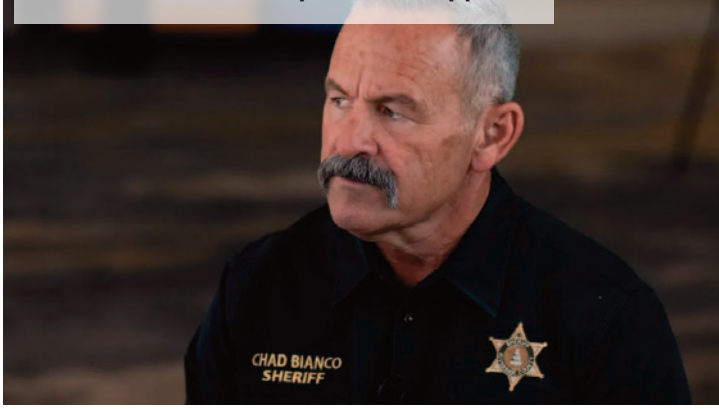

AFL is hoping its challenge can renew cooperation between local law enforcement and federal immigration officials.

Democrat gubernatorial candidate Tom Steyer, who is running against Riverside County Sheriff Bianco, compared ICE to a criminal organization that he would protect Californians from. ICE called him out on the comments, saying: "Tom Steyer, ICE is not a political football."

Top officials like gubernatorial hopeful Chad Bianco are also part of the appeal. AP

HUNTINGTON BEACH 4TH OF JULY PARADE

Since 1904, the Huntington Beach 4th of July Parade has stood as a cherished celebration of freedom, community, and coastal pride. Known as the largest Independence Day parade west of the Mississippi, it draws more than half a million spectators to the vibrant streets of Surf City, USA. With colorful floats, marching bands, vintage cars, and local heroes, the parade blends rich history with modern excitement. Families gather year after year, creating lasting memories under sunny skies and waving flags. This iconic tradition not only honors America's independence but also showcases the unity, spirit, and enduring success that define Huntington Beach and its welcoming, patriotic community.

Charles Hewlett of Seapointe Properties helped us sell our home during the spring of 2025. We could not have been happier with the service and care we received from Charles. He was extremely knowledgeable about the neighborhood and local market and made the whole process stress free. He guided us through each step of the process, making sure we understood all the details each step of the way.

Charles was extremely effective in helping us prepare the home for listing; he put us into contact with several contractors that were responsive, efficient, and charged a fair price. Charles also devised a sensible strategy for listing the house that led to a rapid sale. Finally, Charles found an excellent buyer and negotiated a good price for the home.

On a personal note, Charles is a kind and thoughtful individual who responds quickly to calls and questions and is eager to help whenever needed. He is highly professional and experienced, and the most helpful broker we have worked with.

We cannot recommend Charles Hewlett and Seapointe Properties highly enough.

During this uncertain time in the real estate market, we are very grateful for Charles's hard work and dedication. His professionalism, knowledge, and kindness made the whole experience a joy. He went above and beyond and exceeded our expectations.

Thank you!
Julianne and Erik Altenbernd

Wishing that I could help more nice folks like these. It always makes us feel good when I know I have done a good job for someone that needed my help selling or buying a home.

At Seapointe Properties we make every effort to ensure that our clients are always happy with the results of their real estate transaction. Repeat and word of mouth business is the primary part of our success. We love living in Orange County and feel blessed to have so many great friends to share gatherings and meals together.

Thank you for your continuing support and confidence.
